Commencement

SPRING 2015
FAYETTEVILLE, ARKANSAS

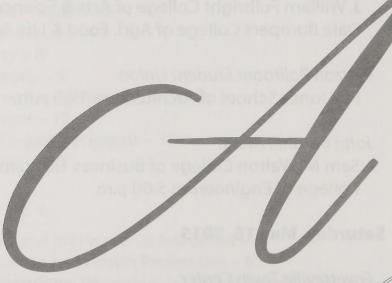

ALMA MATER

Pure as the dawn on the brow of thy beauty
Watches thy soul from the mountains of God
Over the Fates of thy children departed
Far from the land where their footsteps have trod.
Beacon of Hope in the ways dreary lighted;
Pride of our hearts that are loyal and true;
From those who adore unto one who adores us—
Mother of Mothers, we sing unto you.

We, with our faces turned high to the Eastward Proud of our place in the vanguard of Truth, Will sing unto thee a new song of thanksgiving—Honor to God and the Springtime of Youth. Shout for the victory or tear for the vanquished; Sunshine or tempest thy heart is e'er true; Pride of the hills and the white-laden Lowlands—Mother of Mothers, we kneel unto you.

Ever the Legions of Sin will assail us,
Even the Battle in Cities afar;
Still in the depth will thy Spirit eternal
Beckon us on like a piloting Star.
Down the dim years do thy dead children call thee,
Wafted to sleep while the Springtime was new;
We, of the Present, thy Hope of the Future—
Mother of Mothers, we pray unto you.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE AND BATONS

The mace and batons are symbols of the authority and history of the University and are made from balusters from the original main staircase of Old Main, erected in 1875, the oldest University building now standing. The batons are carried by members of the faculty who are serving as marshals.

Marshals' Gowns

The gowns worn by the marshals are of the traditional University color, cardinal red.

HONOR STOLES

White or cardinal stoles denote students who are candidates for University Honors. Cardinal represents Honors (cum laude) and white represents High Honors (magna cum laude). White stoles with cardinal and white cords represent Highest Honors (summa cum laude).

THE UNIVERSITY SONG

In 1909 a prize of fifty dollars was offered for the best poem relating to the University of Arkansas that should be capable of being set to music and used as a college song. Out of many entries, that of Mr. Brodie Payne, '1906, of Hot Springs won the prize. The words were set to music by Professor H. D. Tovey, Director of the Conservatory of Music and Art at the University.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The styles of gowns differentiate degree level. Trim of doctoral gowns indicates nature of degree (black or royal blue — Ph.D.; light blue — Ed.D.). Certain members of the faculty wear distinctive gowns and hoods authorized by their doctoral institutions. The lining of the hood denotes the color(s) of the institution awarding the degree. The official colors of the University of Arkansas are cardinal and white.

The color of the velvet band around the hood designates the academic degree of the wearer. Some examples are listed below:

The University Seal

The Seal of the University of Arkansas is affixed to each diploma and is stamped in gold on each diploma cover. The central element in the Seal is the front entrance to Old Main, the oldest building on campus.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Coach J. Frank Broyles

Frank Broyles has been a tireless goodwill ambassador for the University of Arkansas and the entire state for more than five decades. In his 19-year stint as Arkansas' head football coach (1958-76), the Razorbacks posted a record of 144-58-5, captured a national title in 1964, seven Southwest Conference championships and earned 10 bowl berths.

Broyles was named U of A director of athletics in 1973, a title he balanced with his head coaching duties until 1976 when he retired as Razorback head coach. He made a move to the broadcasting booth a short time later, working along-side legendary sports announcer Keith Jackson for nine years as part of the ABC network's college football coverage.

As the director of athletics, Broyles laid the groundwork for transforming Razorback athletics into an all-sport program that produced 43 national championships, 57 Southwest Conference and 48 Southeast Conference championships, 22 bowl appearances and a bevy of other team and individual accomplishments.

Coach Broyles also worked tirelessly to create athletic facilities on the U of A campus that would give his coaches the best possible advantage to produce winning teams. From Bud Walton Arena to the more than 70,000-seat Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium, Broyles constructed athletic competition facilities to rival any university in America.

Broyles is a member of over a dozen Halls of Fame, and was one of the first inductees in the U of A Sports Hall of Honor. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1983 and honored by the National Football Foundation in 2000 for outstanding achievement as an athletic director.

Another tribute was the establishment of the Broyles Award in 1996, in recognition of his long- standing success with his assistant coaching staffs. The award is given annually to the country's top assistant coach.

In 1982, Coach Broyles chaired the "Campaign for Books" for the University of Arkansas, a drive that added more than 100,000 volumes to the University Libraries. He served as co-chair of the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century that raised $1.046 billion for the university. He has also been a generous personal benefactor to the university's academic programs.

Broyles retired from the University on Dec. 31, 2007 and went to work for the Razorback Foundation. In July 2014, Broyles retired from the Razorback Foundation and now works full time with The Frank and Barbara Broyles Foundation, an organization dedicated to touching the lives of those suffering from Alzheimer's disease and their caregivers. More than 600,000 copies of his Coach Broyles Playbook for Alzheimer's Caregivers have been distributed free of charge to caregivers worldwide.

Coach Broyles resides in Northwest Arkansas with his wife, the former Gen Whitehead, and has six children, 14 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENT

Dr. James E. K. Hildreth

Dr. James Hildreth was born in Camden and graduated as class valedictorian from Camden High School. He attended Harvard University and became the first African American Rhodes Scholar from Arkansas. He graduated from Harvard with a degree in chemistry and earned a doctorate in immunology at Oxford University in England.

Hildreth then attended Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, graduating with a medical degree in 1987 and joining the faculty as an assistant professor.

Hildreth's academic career is marked by several significant milestones: in 2002, he became the first African American to earn full professorship with tenure at Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. In 2011, he was named dean of the College of Biological Sciences at the University of California, Davis, becoming the first African American dean at that institution.

Hildreth began his groundbreaking research on the human immunodeficiency virus in 1986, while still working on his medical degree at Johns Hopkins. His research has been funded through grants from the National Institutes of Health for more than two decades. He is internationally recognized for his work, has published more than 100 scientific articles and is the inventor on 11 patents based on his research.

In 2001, Hildreth was the chief of the Division of Research for the NIH's National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities when he and his team of researchers developed a contraceptive cream that destroys the AIDS virus and holds the promise of stopping the transmission of the disease. The product was specifically designed to support women around the world who have very limited means of protecting themselves from HIV.

In July 2005, Hildreth became director of the NIH-funded Center for AIDS Health Disparities Research at Meharry Medical College.

He has also been a leader in the effort to engage churches and faith leaders in the fight against AIDS and received a major grant from the Centers for Disease Control to support this partnership.

Hildreth has received numerous awards over his career for mentoring, leadership and his efforts related to diversity. These include the NIH Director's Pioneer Award and the Frederick C. Greenwood Award for service that directly affects disadvantaged and underserved ethnic populations.

He has been inducted into the Arkansas Black Hall of Fame and the Johns Hopkins University Society of Scholars. He currently serves on the Harvard University Board of Overseers.

Hildreth is a member of the Institute of Medicine, part of the National Academy of Sciences, the Alpha Omega Alpha Honorary Medical Society as well as numerous professional associations and societies related to the fields of microbiology, immunology and cell biology.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Amy Tu

Amy Tu (J.D.'96) is chief counsel for Boeing Commercial Airplanes for the Boeing Company in Seattle.

Ms. Tu, a native of Fayetteville, has held a number of positions at Boeing including as regional counsel for Europe, Russia and Israel based in London, UK. Previously, she was assistant corporate secretary and counsel in the Law Department's Finance and Governance practice group in Chicago. In that position, she provided legal counsel for mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, equity investments, finance and corporate governance for The Boeing Company. She was also a director for the Corporate and Strategic Development group in 2004.

Prior to joining Boeing in 2001, Ms. Tu was international corporate counsel for Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. in Bentonville, Ark., and the GAP in San Francisco. Her responsibilities included advising senior executives of the companies for international mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures and international trade activities. While at Wal-Mart, she was also responsible for establishing, training and managing in-house legal departments in foreign jurisdictions; developing a government relations strategy for the China operations as well as international trade and global sourcing. She was appointed to the U.S. Department of Commerce Industry Sector Advisory Committee for Retailing.

Ms. Tu has a Bachelor of Arts in economics from Wellesley College and a Juris Doctor from the University of Arkansas School of Law. She was a member of the Arkansas Law Review, the American Inns of Court and was a law clerk through the extern program for the federal chief judge of the Western District of Arkansas, the late Judge H. Franklin Waters. Prior to law school, she was an assistant buyer for cosmetics at Saks Fifth Avenue and a financial analyst in the High Yield/ Restructuring group of the Investment Banking Department at Merrill Lynch in New York.

She was distinguished as a "Top 40 under 40" by Crain's Chicago Business magazine; awarded the 2004 Chinese-American Business Woman of the Year through the Chicago Foundation for Women and Chicago Chinatown Chamber of Commerce; selected as a Fellow for the Leadership Greater Chicago program; served on the Board of Directors for the Pilsen YMCA; co-chaired Perspectives Charter School's annual fundraising campaign; and served as a committee member to the Special Olympics.

With a background in finance and economics, she was determined to head back east to business school. Her parents suggested otherwise – the University of Arkansas School of Law in her hometown. "My parents planted that first thought in my mind about becoming a lawyer." Intrigued, she talked to a number of people in the profession, including lawyers, state officials and judges, to understand the different career paths with a law degree. She took away one important lesson: "having a law degree provides not only a comprehensive understanding of how our legal system works but also a disciplined framework for thinking through issues. You can be a more effective counselor when you understand the business imperatives and objectives."

Currently serving as chief counsel for Commercial Aviation Services for Boeing Commercial Airplanes, she is responsible for supporting the president and leadership team of Commercial Aviation Services, providing legal support for strategic and operational matters worldwide, as well as leading a team of attorneys, paralegals and administrative staff.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the 2015 University of Arkansas Spring Commencement ceremony a success.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARD

Mark Waldrip
2015 Outstanding Alumni Award

Mr. Waldrip of Moro is owner of East Arkansas Seeds, Inc., and Armor Seed, LLC, companies that develop and market soybeans, wheat, rice and corn to a dealer network within 12 southern states. He also owns and manages Waldrip Lands, LLC, a diversified agricultural real estate company. Other business interests include Integrity Grain

Brokerage, LLC; East Arkansas Equipment Co., Inc.; and Edmark Sonic Restaurants. Waldrip is a 1977 graduate of the University of Arkansas and currently serves on the University of Arkansas Board of Trustees, where he serves as Chair of the Audit and Fiscal Responsibility Committee. Waldrip credits the U of A for a large measure of his success, saying "the personal associations that I made in Fayetteville have been invaluable to me in my professional pursuits." In addition to his business success, he has consistently demonstrated a willingness to serve and provide vital leadership to numerous community and civic organizations. His distinguished leadership includes service on the board of directors of Farm Credit Mid-South, Agriculture Development Council, Arkansas Agriculture Board, Arkansas State Plant Board and the Lee County Airport Commission.

YOUNG ALUMNI AWARD

Allison A. Thomas 2015 Young Alumni Award

Ms. Thomas of Washington, D.C., is the Chief of Staff for the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) Foreign Agricultural Service (FAS). In her capacity, she focuses on management and policy coordination between the Office of the Secretary, senior USDA officials, FAS employees, external government agencies and U.S. agriculture stakeholders. She has also worked at the U.S. Embass as a Policy Advisor in Afghanistan and Kenya. Thomas, a 1999 M.S. graduate, began her career with FAS as a summer intern while completing graduate school at the University of Arkansas. According to Thomas, "the study abroad program experience through the University of Arkansas broadened my perspective on international/foreign issues and ultimately created the pathway for my career."

FIRST RANKED SENIOR SCHOLARS

The First-Ranked Senior Scholar award is being presented to Ashlyn Michelle Cook and Sarah Elizabeth Mayfield and signifies that they have maintained a 4.0 grade point average and completed all of their coursework at the University of Arkansas.

Ashlyn Michelle Cook, from Jefferson City, MO, majored in Human Nutrition and Hospitality Innovation. She is a member of Mortar Board National Honor Society, Order of Omega Honor Society, Bumpers College Honors Program and the Hospitality Club. Ashlyn has been an active member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority, where she most recently served as vice president of academic excellence.

Sarah Elizabeth Mayfield from San Antonio, TX, double-majored in Food Science and Biochemistry. She served as a Bumpers College Ambassador and president of the Food Science Club. After graduation, Sarah will continue her education at the UA pursuing a doctorate in Food Science. She has been awarded a Distinguished Doctoral Fellowship to fund her graduate school experience.

SENIOR SCHOLAR

This year's Senior Scholar awards are presented to graduates who have maintained a 4.0 grade point average and completed at least half of their coursework at the University of Arkansas.

Bradley John Isbell, from Fort Gibson, OK, majored in Agricultural Business. He is the recipient of the Spitze Public Legislative Internship Award and served as a member of the livestock judging team and the Agricultural Business Club. Bradley plans to seek employment in the private sector after graduation and also hopes to enter a career in public policy.

SENIOR SCHOLAR

Megan Michelle Lankford, from Oxford, NY, majored in Horticulture, Landscape and Turf Science. Michelle co-founded Seeds That Feed and partnered with Feed Fayetteville, the local farmers markets and the farmers at the market to collect more than 16,000 pounds of fresh produce for local churches and food banks. After graduation, Megan will work full-time at the Botanical Garden of the Ozarks.

Stephanie Caroline Philpot, from Springfield, MO, double-majored in Poultry Science and Accounting. She completed an internship with Cargill and spent a semester doing community development work in Bangladesh. She was secretary of the Poultry Science Club and was named Student of the Year by the college student career program of the International Poultry and Processing Expo.

FULBRIGHT STUDENT SPEAKER

Padmavathy Manavazhahan Fulbright College Student Speaker

Padmavathy Manavazhahan, is a Fulbright College four year honor student seeking a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in Chemistry and minors in Classical Studies; Gender Studies; and Medieval and Renaissance Studies. She began her studies at the University of Arkansas in fall 2011 after graduating from Rogers Heritage High School in Rogers, Arkansas. She came to the U of A as a Bodenhamer Fellow, National Merit Scholar and a recipient of the Arkansas Distinguished Governor's Scholarship. Since her arrival on campus, Padma was selected as a University of Arkansas College Ambassador and has served as a panelist or speaker at key events; served as a member of the International Students Organization in which she was instrumental in choreographing and directing performances of classical Indian Dance for on-campus events; and she coordinated a bone marrow registration drive at the annual Diwali Banquet on the U of A campus. She has served as secretary of Eta Sigma Phi (The national Classical Studies Society) and is a member of Alpha Chi Sigma, (the National Chemistry Fraternity). She has studied abroad in Belize, Ghana, Tanzania. Padma was selected and served as the undergraduate student representative on the campus committee for the selection of the next Honors College Dean and she was most recently recognized as a "Senior of Significance" by the Arkansas Alumni Association. She has also been active in off campus work where she has coordinated weekly text-based Hindu philosophical study groups, hosted fundraisers and retreats for Chinmaya Yuva Kendra West.

After graduation, Padma plans to take a year off from her studies before beginning a study of medicine in fall 2016.

The University community wishes to express its appreciation for the assistance of all people who helped make the 2015 University of Arkansas Spring Commencement ceremony a success.

UTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARD IN HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

Charolette Tidwell, M.Ed. '81, enjoyed a career in acute-care nursing, where she specialized in critical care, long-term care and medical/surgical nursing. She practiced at Sparks Regional Medical Center for 24 years and then worked for Beverly Enterprises, Inc. Charolette co-founded Antioch Consolidated Association for Youth & Family, Inc., the largest hunger-relief agency in Fort Smith, with her late husband and now directs the organization.

She serves on numerous boards and received the Noble Cause Award and Good Deeds Award in Fort Smith. She was named a Woman of Distinction by the Girl Scouts of America and a Distinguished Alumna of Lincoln High School. Her personal commitment to alleviate food security in the River Valley has been featured on national television.

OUTSTANDING YOUNG ALUMNI AWARD

Jenna White, M.Ed. '12, is a physical education teacher in her eighth year at Orion Elementary School on Joint Base Elmendorf Richardson in Anchorage, Alaska. Jenna has served as a member of the Standards Based Assessment committee, has both presented and taught a credit course on standard implementation and has presented at the SHAPE Alaska conference on connecting Common Core state standards to physical education. She has also served as a host to student teachers, a mentor to a new physical education teacher and is a member of the Elementary P.E. Advisory Committee for the Anchorage School District. She has received the Alaska Elementary Physical Education Teacher of the Year award and the prestigious national Milken Educator Award.

OUTSTANDING ALUMNI AWARD IN EDUCATION

Marsha Jones, Ed.D. '87, is the retired associate superintendent for curriculum and instruction of the Springdale School District, where she developed programming for over 20,000 pre-school, elementary and secondary students in 29 schools. Marsha was integral to the success of many programs, including the $25 million Race to the Top Grant, in which Springdale was one of five districts to receive federal funds from this competitive national award. She has demonstrated her commitment to education by staying involved throughout the region and state, as well as through service on the boards of several community-based organizations. Marsha was named Outstanding Administrator of the Year by the Arkansas Music Educators' Association, the Arkansas Arts Educators Association and the Arkansas Association of Curriculum and Instruction Administrators.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Anna Reed Phillips

Anna Reed Phillips co-founded the Bridge2Rwanda Scholars Program in 2011 and serves as its director of development. The college preparation, leadership and career development program trains top Rwandan students to compete for international university scholarships and return to Africa upon completing their education to become leaders on the continent.

Since the start of the program, Anna's team has helped more than 100 African students win scholarships to 50 universities in five countries for a total of $20 million in scholarship funding. In 2014, the program expanded to include students from neighboring conflict-torn countries, including South Sudan, Burundi, Democratic Republic of Congo and Liberia.

Anna earned a bachelor's degree in communication disorders from the University of Arkansas in 2004 and a master's degree in speech pathology, specializing in auditory-verbal therapy for children with hearing loss, from the University of South Carolina in 2006.

She worked as a speech language pathologist at Arkansas Children's Hospital in Little Rock after earning her master's degree and moved to Rwanda in 2009. She taught English at a boarding school for Rwandan genocide orphans, starting a program to help qualified Rwandan students apply to international universities, teaching SAT and TOEFL standardized test preparation and college application counseling. This program led to the development of Bridge2Rwanda Scholars Program.

Anna also worked part time to start the first speech pathology program and clinic in Rwanda at King Faisal Hospital in Kigali. She was project coordinator for Starkey Hearing Foundation's efforts in Rwanda, managing a project to bring hearing aids to more than 2,500 children and adults with hearing loss.

Anna received the Outstanding Young Alumni Award from the College of Education and Health Professions in 2014 and is a former member of the college's Dean's Advisory Council. She was the 2003 University of Arkansas Homecoming Queen and 2004 U of A Senior Scholar for 4.0 GPA.

Fayetteville Jazz Collective

The Fayetteville Jazz Collective was founded in May, 2009, as a professional jazz orchestra comprised of musicians active in the Northwest Arkansas area. The FJC is an 18-piece group that seeks to preserve and enhance the big band tradition through education of young audiences, aspiring musicians, and the general public. It has performed the works of Duke Ellington, Billy Strayhorn, Thad Jones, Gil Evans, Oliver Nelson, Sammy Nestico, Frank Foster, Tito Puente, Gordon Goodwin, and many others. The FJC also provides an outlet for local composers and arrangers, such as James Greeson, Ben Harris, and Rick Salonen, the band's baritone saxophonist and "composer in residence." The FJC hopes to continue to enrich the cultural life of the greater Northwest Arkansas community through performances and outreach. Contact information is available on their website at www.fayettevillejazzcollective.org.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Strving Pressley Mc Phail
President and Chief Executive Officer
National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering

Irving Pressley McPhail was named the sixth president and chief executive officer of the National Action Council for Minorities in Engineering, Inc. on September 1, 2009. He joined NACME in 2007 as executive vice president and chief operating officer. Under McPhail's presidency, NACME received the 2012 Claire Felbinger Award for Diversity from the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

Prior to joining NACME, McPhail founded and served as principal of The McPhail Group LLC. He served 15 years as a college president or chancellor at The Community College of Baltimore County, St. Louis Community College at Florissant Valley, and LeMoyne-Owen College. McPhail also served as chief operating officer of the Baltimore City Public Schools. Under his leadership, The Community College of Baltimore County was named one of 12 Vanguard Learning Colleges in the U.S. and Canada in 2000 by the League for Innovation in the Community College, won the Bellwether Award in the category of Planning, Finance and Governance in 2000 and was awarded the PBS O'Banion Prize for Leading the Way to Change in Teaching and Learning in 2003.

McPhail has held tenured full professorships at three colleges and universities and served as an affiliate or visiting professor at the University of Maryland at College Park, the University of Pennsylvania, and Morgan State University. He is the co-editor of Teaching African American Learners to Read: Perspectives and Practices, published by the International Reading Association in 2005 and the author of more than 50 journal articles, chapters, monographs, and technical reports.

McPhail was an American Council on Education Fellow in Academic Administration at The Johns Hopkins University, and he completed the Presidents Academy Summer Institute at the American Association of Community Colleges and the Institute for Educational Management at Harvard University. His many awards include The Polytechnic Medal and the 2014 Vision Award from the New York University Polytechnic School of Engineering, the 2012 Educator of the Year Award from the University of Pennsylvania Graduate School of Education, the Ira D. and Rubye Hibler Hall Endowed Heritage Lecture Series Award from Langston University, the Alumni of Color Achievement Award from the Harvard Graduate School of Education and the Pioneer Award from the National Council on Black American Affairs of the American Association of Community Colleges. Dr. McPhail serves on the board of directors of the Society of Manufacturing Engineers Education Foundation, the Alliance for Science & Technology Research in America, and the Accreditation Board for Engineering and Technology.

McPhail earned a bachelor's degree in development sociology at Cornell University and a master's degree in reading at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. He earned a doctorate in reading/language arts at the University of Pennsylvania as a National Fellowships Fund Fellow and was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Engineering degree from the Polytechnic Institute of New York University in 2010.

McPhail is a charter member of the DiscoverE Diversity Council. He also served as a strategy coach in the Achieving the Dream national initiative at Prairie View A&M University in Texas. Active in community service, he is a volunteer with the Stuyvesant High School Black Alumni Diversity Initiative and the E.W. Wainwright Memorial Scholarship Committee, Budget Committee, and Health and Wellness Committee at The Shiloh Baptist Church in Harlem, New York.

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING HALL OF FAME

Established in 1965, the Hall of Fame is the highest honor bestowed by the College of Engineering at the University of Arkansas. The award recognizes prominent graduates and leaders who have made outstanding contributions to the engineering profession and to society as a whole. Members of the Hall of Fame have, throughout their careers, made a difference to the engineering profession and demonstrated concern for improving their communities. Their achievements have brought favorable attention to the College of Engineering, to the University of Arkansas and to the state of Arkansas.

The Hall of Fame is located on the third floor of Bell Engineering Center.

A Brief History of the College of Engineering

- 1871 the University of Arkansas was established
- 1873 the first courses in civil engineering were offered
- 1888 the first civil engineering degree was awarded
- 1893 the College of Engineering was organized as a college of the university
- 1897 a separate civil engineering department was established
 - a department of electrical engineering was established
- 1903 a department of mechanical engineering was established
 - a chemical engineering curriculum was established in the department of chemistry
- 1920 the Engineering Experiment Station was established by the state legislature to investigate and study engineering problems of general interest to Arkansas
- 1925 the first master's degree in engineering was awarded
- 1945 chemical engineering became part of the College of Engineering
- 1948 a department of agricultural engineering was established
 - a department of industrial engineering was established
- 1959 a Doctor of Philosophy degree was approved
- 1975 the Engineering Extension Center was formed to provide continuing education opportunities to practicing engineers
- 1976 a computer science engineering program was initiated within the industrial engineering department
- 1982 the college took possession of a deserted manufacturing plant that evolved into the Engineering Research Center
- 1985 computer science engineering became a separate department
 - the Arkansas Center for Technology Transfer was established
- 1986 the Engineering Distance Education Center was created to offer off-campus engineering education
 - the GENESIS Technology Incubator was established
- 1989 agricultural engineering became the department of biological and agricultural engineering
- 1991 the computer science engineering department name was changed to computer systems engineering
- 1998 computer systems engineering merged with the computer science department housed in the
 - J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences, creating the department of computer science & computer engineering
- 2005 the chemical engineering department name was changed to the Ralph E. Martin Department of Chemical Engineering
- 2012 Historic Engineering Hall, built in 1927, was renamed the John A. White Jr. Engineering Hall, in honor of the former chancellor.
 - the department of biomedical engineering was established

GUEST SPEAKER

Tonnie Smith
President and CEO, Tyson Foods, Inc.

Donnie Smith, president and CEO of Tyson Foods, Inc., is the 2015 commencement speaker for the Sam M. Walton College of Business. Smith's enthusiasm for Tyson Foods is contagious among the company's 124,000 team members. Appointed to his role as president and CEO in 2009, his passion is the hallmark of his tenure at the company, which he joined in 1980. Daily he guides Tyson Foods to be a company with a conscience, focused on feeding the world great, affordable food, while also making a positive difference in people's lives.

Through his career, Smith has worked to learn every angle of the Tyson Foods business. He joined Tyson, working in poultry operations for seven years in Tennessee before moving to the company's headquarters in Springdale, Ark., where he started as a commodity buyer. He was named director of commodity purchasing in 1991 and during the next several years added complementary responsibilities to his management portfolio: logistics, purchasing and information systems in 2006; and engineering, food safety and quality assurance, and environmental health and safety in 2007. He moved into the company's consumer products division in 2008 and was named senior group vice president of poultry and prepared foods in early 2009, the same year he was appointed as president and CEO.

During his tenure with Tyson Foods, Smith has been very supportive of the University of Arkansas, formerly serving on the board of the Walton College's Information Technology Research Institute and serving as moderator of the Center for Business and Economic Research Business Forecast Luncheon in 2014. A native of Tennessee, he graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville with a bachelor's degree in animal science.

SENIOR WALK

The University of Arkansas will honor you and your classmates by engraving your name on Senior Walk. Students who graduated in the fall of 2014 as well as graduates of spring and summer 2015 terms, will be on the 2015 senior walk.

We are students for a brief time. WE ARE ALUMNIFOREVER. Congratulations! WE INVITE YOU TO JOIN THE ARKANSAS ALUMNI ASSOCIATION TO STAY CONNECTED — AND EXPAND YOUR NETWORK. Learn about the perks of membership at WWW.ARKANSASALUMNI.ORG/NEWGRADS # ARKANSASALUMNI

Your Connection Starts Here
